

What Slicing Software Should I Use?

We recommend and support the use of MatterControl as the host software for your printer. This is used to control the printer and to create the GCODE that the printer needs to print a part. MatterControl is available for free download:

WINDOWS

MAC

If you want to experiment with other slicing programs (unsupported), you can find some of our sample profiles here: Slicing Profiles